5. Data sharing

The Club does not share members' personal data with third parties, except where it is necessary to carry out the normal business of the Club or to:

- pass on to the police and government authorities any data requested by them, e.g. in cases of suspected fraud or theft;
- comply with any applicable rules, laws, regulations, codes of practice or guidelines issued by any legal or regulatory body which are binding on us e.g. HMRC Gift Aid.

6. Transaction and data security

Whilst the Club takes reasonable, appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard the personal data that you provide to it, the Club cannot guarantee the complete security of any personal data that is transferred via the internet whilst in transit. Sending such information is entirely at your own risk.

The trustees follow the principles below when dealing with personal data :

- all hard copies of personal data are kept securely;
- trustees are aware of the importance of handling and storing data safely and securely using supported operating systems and running up to date anti-virus software;
- the Club will audit its database(s) annually and delete any contacts no longer needed;
- all personal information is stored on cloud based systems to which access is granted only to those who require it for the purposes stated in this document. Where data is downloaded for purposes of updating it is stored only on trustees personal drives, and accessible only via individual log in.

Your data will not be sent overseas.

7. Accessing and amending your data

You have the right to:

- access your personal data;
- have your personal data amended;
- have your personal data deleted if there is no reason for its continued storage and processing;
- restrict the processing of your personal data;
- withdraw your consent for the use of your data.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at the address given below. Should you withdraw your consent to any use of your personal data, the Club may not be able to continue to provide full membership services to you. The Club cannot be held liable for any failure to provide membership services following withdrawal of consent.

8. Retention of data

Your personal data will be retained for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it is collected, for administration, business or in accordance with applicable laws. Should you choose to withdraw your consent for use of your data or resign from the Club your personal data may still be retained for up to twelve months, or to the extent required by law or regulation.

You can find out more about your data protection rights and the exemptions which may apply on the ICO's website.
